

Now, where does it live? On flat-screen TVs!
It rushes toward every camera it sees.
It thrives in the most contentious conditions
And excretes the most appalling emissions.

Its diet is cash, its friends all go-getters.
Its poop spells out "Trump" in ten-foot-high letters!

Trump this and Trump that, and Trump buildings and steaks.
Trump airplanes and clothing and several Trump mates.
Trump crap everywhere in a Trumpy Trump land.
But don't call it crap. The Trump calls it a "brand."

Yes, it can speak! Are you impressed?
You should be, because a Trump's really the best!
It says so if asked, and even if not.
"I'm the best!" it declares in terms overweight.

Dear reader, I know that you might be confused
After spotting this creature that's been in the news.
What is this strange beast you keep hearing about?
Together, I think we can figure it out. . . .

The beastly is called an American Trump.
Its skin is bright orange, its figure is plump;
Its fur so complex, you might get enveloped.
Its hands are, sadly, underdeveloped.
